Form of employment: full time

Type of contract: 3 - 6 months

Net monthly wage (Euro): 500 euros

Job description:

Marine Weather Centre is looking for a suitable candidate to be employed as a Marine Weather Forecaster. The head office is based in Chiavari (Genoa- Italy) and the preliminary plan is to start a new operational unit in Falmouth (Cornwall UK) to develop a new project for the weather assistance to Liners. The first step of this opportunity will be a traineeship placement during the 2018 spring/summer season to work with an existing team of Forecasters and in order to acquire the necessary specific operational knowledge and then to cooperate from Falmouth. The company aims to attract a talented young person with the desire to make a significant contribution to the company in a professional and friendly work environment. All the necessary training will be provided and there will be opportunities for him/her to be involved in the new projects of the Company in Cornwall, depending on the skills and experience of the candidate. We are looking for an enthusiast person keen to acquire new skills. The features of the potential candidate will be: – A genuine interest in meteorology and everything related to the sea-marine sector; – Excellent knowledge of the English language, preferably at mother tongue level; – A good understanding of marine meteorology (analyzing charts, understanding of weather models to produce forecasts); – A strong desire to learn and succeed in a busy environment; – Good communication skills, both orally and in writing; – The ability to work in a team-oriented environment, but also individually; – The ability to focus on standard procedures and acquire new skills; - Good computer skills Remuneration depends on the experience of the candidate. Five reasons to work with us: a) We have year-long experience in marine weather forecasting b) We are innovative and aim to make a positive difference in the field in which we operate c) We always look to finding ways to improve our working systems d) We value our customers, our success depends on them e) Our business is internationally-oriented Please submit your application with a CV in English to eures.genova@cittametropolitana.genova.it and info@navimeteo.com
